A New Decade, A New Theatre, A New Direction

Welcome to our season of Great Stories Well Told! My name is Scott Hurst and I am the new Artistic Director of Theatre by the Bay. It's my privilege to lead this company forward into a new decade and it's my pleasure to share with you some of the exciting things that are new in 2012.

This season we move into our brand new home at The Mady Centre for the Performing Arts. "The Mady" is right in the heart of Barrie within walking distance of fine dining, superior shopping and our magnificent waterfront.

We've expanded our season to 3 productions and extended our programming from July 26 – August 26 to allow more people than ever before the opportunity to attend our plays and musicals. Our new Box Office at the Mady Centre will allow you to reserve your tickets by phone, online or in person, with the option to buy one show at a time or all three shows for one low price!

We love to dialogue with our members & patrons so we hope that you'll visit our website, join us on Facebook, Twitter & YouTube and consider becoming a Supporting Member of this vibrant company.

I personally look forward to welcoming you to Theatre by the Bay in 2012, and the years ahead!

Scott

July 26 – August 18, 2012 – 16 performances

A Magnificent Musical with a book by Dale Wasserman
Music by Joe Darion & Lyrics by Mitch Leigh
Directed by Scott A. Hurst

Our second decade of live theatre begins with the musical based on the 17th century Spanish masterpiece, Don Quixote, written by Miguel de Cervantes, around about the same time as Shakespeare penned King Lear and Macbeth. Also known as "The Impossible Dream musical", Man of La Mancha lit up the New York stage for the first time in 1965 winning the Tony Award for Best Musical and lasting for an incredible 2,328 performances. Man of La Mancha is performed without intermission and contains mature themes and dramatic scenes of violence. Recommended for ages 13 and up.

August 9 – 26, 2012 – 16 performances

A Corpulent Comedy by William Shakespeare
Directed by Lee Wilson

Queen Elizabeth so enjoyed the character of the vainglorious knight Sir John Falstaff, that she commissioned Shakespeare to write a play allowing him to pursue his love of the fairer sex. This bawdy, comic romp has the unique distinction of being the only one of the Bard's plays to deal with the contemporary Elizabethan middle class life and times for which he wrote. It also has the distinction of being one of the first "spin-offs" for a secondary character! This production is suitable for the entire family but recommended for ages 13 and up, due to suggestive behaviour.

August 10 – 25, 2012 – 22 performances

A Doubly Delightful Musical Adaptation of Mordecai Richler's Family Classic
Book by Mordecai Richler, Music by Philip Balsam,
Additional Music & Lyrics by Jim Betts
Directed by Scott A. Hurst

Jacob Two-Two has to say everything twice to be heard simply because he's the youngest of five children. His quest to be taken seriously takes him into a fantastic world of larger than life characters including Master Fish, Mistress Fowl, and (gulp!)... The Hooded Fang!
